RE: Expunging Document(s) for Unintentional Correspondence to USPTO.

Dear Office of Petitions,

I filled out the forms of:

Petition for Revival of an Application for Patent Abandoned Unavoidably Under 37 CFR 1.137 (a)
Petition for Revival of an Application for Patent Abandoned Unintentionally Under 37 CFR 1.17 (b)
Petition for Revival of an Application for Patent for Failure to Notify the Office of a Foreign or International Filing (37 CFR 1.137 (f))

The correspondence forms stated above was sent to the USPTO on September 22, 2011 via United States Postal Office, this mail and its content was not intended for the USPTO to receive, review or to be used as public record. This mail was intended for my attorney to review and rewrite. We ask you to consider the situation as an unintentional response and correspondence to the USPTO but meant for my attorney only.

The requested expunged page (Petition for Revival of an Application for Patent Abandoned Unavoidably under 37 CFR 1.137(a), form PTO/SB/61 (07-09) page 3 of 3, is handwritten and is two paragraphs as this was ONLY to be a correspondence with my patent attorney and was sent to the USPTO by accident and was truly unintentional correspondence to the USPTO. We will resubmit the correct response to the USPTO with an intentional response(s).

Attached, you will find the page that we're requesting to be expunged and a payment of $200.00 in requiring to do so.

If you should have any questions/comments, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Rosa Oh Kelson
